From Victorian to equestrian, old to new again...

Waxhaw will be all dressed up for the Holidays!

Did you know the charm of this beautiful little town lies in the people who live here, and the wonderful collection of homes they live in? If you've been longing to see, firsthand, our fabulous assortment of architectural styles, then the Holiday Tour of Homes offered by the Waxhaw Woman's Club is something you won't want to miss, on Friday, November 30th from 10-6, and Saturday, December 1st from 10-5.

The tour will offer a collection of 8 properties unlike any others. From a beautifully renovated Victorian home to one that is quite literally off the ground, there is something that will appeal to everyone. Here's just a little teaser of what the tour offers...

A house in the trees. If you live in North Carolina, you should live "in the trees", but this home takes that idea to another height. Located 15 feet off of the ground, it is situated in 7 trees! This English Cottage Re-tree-t, is regularly featured on Animal Planet's Treehouse Masters. The Treehouse is our only repeat property this year.

A home in the Mill. Marvel at how a collection of cozy homes has remained true to the architecture of a 19th century cotton mill.

The Grand Victorian. This home, built in the late 19th century has recently undergone a major renovation, but the renovation has preserved the integrity of the design of the original 1898 home. Any former inhabitant would know this house immediately, and yet would be amazed by it's current appearance.

From Victorian to equestrian, old to new again, the 2018 Waxhaw Woman's Club Holiday Tour of Homes will provide visitors with a taste of the wonderful character of Waxhaw – all dressed up for the holidays!
